Prince of Songkla University and Macquarie University wish to establish a program of academic cooperation and this document serves to formalise the agreement between the two universities.

The program of cooperation established by the present Agreement will consist of the following :

- 1 Exchanges of staff, students and materials;
- 2 The sharing of exchange of information of mutual interest and for projects and programs jointly undertaken;
- 3 Joint publications;
- 4 All other initiatives likely to promote academic cooperation.

The implementation of the present Agreement will not result in any compulsory financial contribution or any other material obligation for the two universities. The two universities will be at liberty to determine the financing of their joint initiatives and exchanges in accordance with their respective policies.

This Agreement is for a period of unlimited duration. However, it may be terminated by either university upon written notice of one year, in order to safeguard any projects already begun.

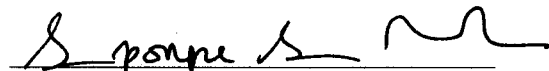

This Agreement will become effective upon ratification and consent of the universities concerned.
