

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN
PRINCE OF SONGKLA UNIVERSITY
AND
UNIVERSITY OF HUMBERSIDE
ON
ACADEMIC AND RESEARCH COLLABORATION

WHEREAS, Prince of Songkla University and University of Humberside are mutually interested in establishing collaboration on academic and research related development activities;

WHEREAS, the two institutions have discussed the furtherance of these interests and now desire to record their mutual understandings in this regard;

NOW, THEREFORE, both parties hereby record their understanding.

ARTICLE I

The purpose of this Memorandum of Understanding is to develop and carry out collaborative activities in furtherance of the common interest of the institutions set forth in ARTICLE II.

ARTICLE II

The scope of collaboration on academic and research activities include in this Memorandum of Understanding includes the following categories:

1. Training programs, including degree and non-degree programs.
2. Research collaboration in the areas of mutual interest to both parties.
3. Exchange of academic materials which are made available by both parties.
4. Exchange of scholars in the course of academic development to address problems of academic progress.
5. Sponsor co-operative seminars, workshops and other academic meetings of mutual interest.

ARTICLE III

To implement the aims and purposes expressed in Article I and II the following is mutually understood and agreed:

1. Proposals for collaborative work under this Memorandum will be submitted through the nominees of the Chief Executive Officers of each institution.
2. Memoranda of Agreement will be provided for each collaborative project which will specify the duties of each party in respect of the provision of collaborative or joint programmes concerning areas of staff development, student exchange and research occurring under the auspices of this Agreement. These Memoranda of Agreement will form annexes to this Memorandum of Understanding.
3. Each University will nominate one of its members as its representative in charge of each collaborative programme. Individual programmes of work developed from this Memorandum will be jointly planned and conducted by the nominees of both parties.
4. The progress of each individual programme will be regularly reviewed and approved, as detailed in the Memorandum of Agreement, by designated project officials of both parties.
5. The final approval of any project will be dependent upon the availability of guaranteed support funds. Financial arrangements, including terms of payment and fees will be agreed between UOH and PSU on an individual project basis and will be detailed in the Memoranda of Agreement annexed to this document.
6. Neither PSU or UOH will be held responsible for any liability whatsoever; furthermore, neither party shall be required to purchase any insurance against loss or damage to any personal property to which is agreement relates.
7. Both PSU and UOH are free to pursue co-operative ventures with other parties and nothing in this agreement shall imply exclusivity on the part of either party or affect their ability to contract or collaborate with other parties, except where this is provided for in an annex to this Agreement.

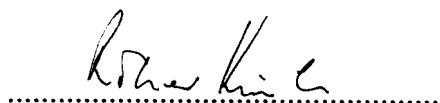

ARTICLE IV

1. This Memorandum of Understanding is effective as of the date of execution by the appropriate officers of each signatory institution.
2. The progress of collaboration between UOH and PSU under this MOU will be reviewed annually by the Vice-Chancellor of UOH and the President of PSU or their nominees.

3. Either party may terminate this Agreement on giving not less than twelve months notice in writing of termination. The right to terminate is subject to two conditions:
- (i) Reasonable opportunity must be given to remedy any alleged breach of the Agreement by either party, where the reason for seeking termination is an alleged breach of the Agreement.
 - (ii) The parties agree that all continuing obligations to students, clients, funding bodies or other persons or agencies are met in full subsequent to the notice of termination.
4. This Memorandum of Understanding may be amended at any time by mutual consent and shall continue in force and effect for five years and can be extended by mutual consent of both parties.
